Having been appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the citizens of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $500,000. WILSON MALE AND FEMALE HIGH SCHOOL,

WILSON, N. C.

THIS School will open the Second Monday in January, in the large and commodious buildings formerly occupied by Dr. Deems.

The Principal has associated with him Professors AVERETT and LADY, of Halifax County, Virginia. Professor AVERETT is a graduate of the University of Virginia. He is a teacher of many years experience—was Professor of Mathematics in the Danville Female College until he resigned his position to take his place in the Confederate army. He is known to be a ripe scholar and an accomplished gentleman.—Mrs. AVERETT is also well known, both in Virginia and North Carolina, as a successful teacher, in both the Literary and Music Departments of the best Female Schools.

In a word, the Principal has resolved to make this School all that it professes to be, viz: a High School of the first grade. In order to this, he has employed only such teachers as are known to be accomplished scholars, and who have established a reputation as successful instructors.

The number of pupils will not hereafter be limited; and additional teachers will be employed so soon as the patronage will justify it.

The Music Department will be committed to Mrs. AVERETT, who will be assisted by Mrs. ARMISTEAD.

All the teachers will reside in the College Buildings. Young ladies can obtain board with the Principal, and boys can secure board with private families in the town.

The session will comprise twenty weeks. The terms per session will be—

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Friday Evening, Dec. 28, 1866.

The Standard and the Inaugural.

Gov. Worth's recent inaugural meets the hearty approbation of every loyal man and woman in North Carolina. No one expected that that disloyal sheet, the Standard, or its disloyal supporters, would approve it. Men who are anxious to subvert the governments of the States and the Constitution of the United States may talk of their loyalty or their Unionism, but no one has any confidence in their pretensions.—They are the real traitors to the Union and the government in North Carolina.

The Standard makes a characteristic, yet unwontedly gross, attack upon Gov. Worth. The Governor, alluding, in his inaugural, to the late bill introduced into Congress at the request of Messrs. Holden and Pool, and speaking of the proposition to organize a new Convention, said, "this Convention is to frame a new Constitution for the Territory formerly known as the State of North Carolina." Upon this the Standard charges, that Gov. Worth "sets out with a deliberate falsehood." This base and indecent attack is founded upon the simple use of the word "Territory."

It is proper that we should state, that the inaugural was drawn up hastily, and that when we put it in type for the Sentinel, the Governor had no time to revise the proof. One authorized to do so, in revising the inaugural after its appearance in the Sentinel, for the purpose of printing it by order of the House, struck out the word "Territory" and inserted "District," in order, as Gov. Worth desired, to conform it to the precise language of the bill. This was done before the attack of the Standard appeared.

Yet, in its original shape, Gov. Worth neither "set out" with, nor did he state "a deliberate falsehood." Nor has the Sentinel reiterated "a lie," as the Standard charges us, because we affirmed that the scheme proposed to reduce the State of North Carolina to a Territory. But does the Standard speak nothing but the truth, when it says, "the bill simply provides that the judicial 'district formerly comprising the State of North Carolina' shall be re-organized?" Is the word "judicial district" in the bill, any more than the word "Territory?" No. Where did Messrs. Holden and Pool get the idea that North Carolina was a district? The only political designations of the territory or domain, under the jurisdiction of the U. S. government, known to the Constitution, are States, Territories and the District of Columbia. That is the only District under the jurisdiction of Congress. If North Carolina is a District or Territory, and not a State, when did it become so? By what act of the people of North Carolina, or of its Legislature, or of the Congress, did it become so? It is presumable of a State, if it can cease to become so, and can in any sense be politically designated as a District, that some official, authorized action of some one must make it so. Let the Standard point out any such official action. As to Congress or any other power making a political district out of a State is simply ridiculous, and the attempt to convert a judicial district into a State is laughable. Congress has power to fix Judicial Circuits or Districts in one or more States, but where is the power to attempt to make a State out of a judicial District?

The theory of the government is, that the domain comprising the Union, or the United States, is either States or Territories and the District of Columbia. It was almost universally conceded in the controversy growing out of the Mexican war, that the United States had no power under the Constitution to acquire territory by conquest. No right was set up by the United States to one foot of Mexican territory by virtue of conquest. Our acquisition of any portion of its territory was based entirely upon purchase. What shadow of claim, even if the United States has the right to acquire territory by conquest, has the United States acquired over the eminent domain embraced in the late rebellious States? The sole legal jurisdiction over those States, before the war, was over the people of those States. That jurisdiction, we hold, during the war was the same, and was only interrupted where the opposing force was superior. Now that the revolt has been put down, the jurisdiction is precisely the same as it was before the war.—What new right has the government of the United States gained by the conquest of the Southern forces and people? Was it a conquest of the eminent domain and of the States themselves, or of the people of those States? Evidently of the people. As States, they were essential parts of the government itself. Certainly, it will not be contended that the United States government conquered itself, or essential integral parts of itself. No one, not even Messrs. Holden and Pool, can think so, yet their whole plan proceeds upon this ridiculous idea.

But Gov. Worth and the Sentinel are justified in charging that Messrs. Holden and Pool's bill attempts to destroy the organic character of the State of North Carolina and to throw her into a territorial condition. Calling her a district does not alter the case. The Southern States had been threatened with territorialization for the rejection of the Howard amendment. If we mistake not, the Standard had joined in this threat. As soon as this bill of Messrs. Holden and Pool was presented to Congress by Mr. Stevens, the Radical press called it a territorializing bill. Moreover, it was not referred to the Committee on Reconstruction, but to the Committee on Territories. Why, if it did not pertain to Territories? But suppose the bill should be passed and enforced; and suppose the Constitution, to be adopted by the Convention provided for, should be presented to Congress and rejected. What then? What right has Congress to revise and reject Constitutions adopted by the people, except the Constitutions of Territories? Congress can reject no Constitutions of Territories without limit, and keep them as Territories for years. Pray what would be the political status of North Carolina during that period of suspension? Would it not be Territorial? Let the Standard answer.

A grave question arises here, which the people of North Carolina will do well to investigate and answer to themselves. Can the people of North Carolina, by any act of theirs, yield the legitimate claim the State has to being a State? Can they by their acts consent that North Carolina shall be thus shorn of her Statehip and reduced to a District or Territory? Never.

This bill, in our view, is not only wholly unconstitutional, but is a most ridiculous affair.—School boys, who had any knowledge of the character of a Republican government, and of our government especially, would not have produced such a non-descript. As soon as we get space we will publish it, that the people may see the whale. Mr. Stevens was too shrewd a man to present it to Congress on his own responsibility. He did not intend to father such a rickety bantling. We protest strongly against Mr. Stevens poking fun at our State, by saying that he presented it at the request of "gentlemen from North Carolina." It is in this way North Carolina has been ridiculed all over the land, for her ignorance, want of civilization, &c.—Persons hailing from this State, who have exhibited their greenness and want of cultivation, have gone on blundering in this way, and it has all been charged to the credit of "gentlemen from North Carolina." It is too bad. We protest against it.

The fact is, a few very doubtful characters went to Washington "with their breeches down." They wanted something, they knew not what, except that they desired Congress to fix up some scheme by which they could get into office, contrary to the wishes of the people, and they fixed up this nondescript and called it a bill. And now our good old State has to submit to the ridicule of having originated it. Oh, horrid! She can bear to be ridiculed as the "tar and turpentine State," but can she ever get over the odium of having originated "Holden and Pool's bill?" Mercy on us. Did ever a State have such luck before?

It was very truthfully and forcibly remarked by Gov. Worth, in his Inaugural Address, that most, if not all, of those who are now prominent in the treasonable effort to subvert the existing State government, either have held, now hold, or have sought to hold, office under it.

Holden sought to be Governor. North Carolina was then, in his estimation, a State. She became a very contemptible District only when his ambitious hopes were crushed. He is even now a Justice of the Peace, and, as such, has taken an oath to support the Constitution of the "State of North Carolina." Who has absolved him from that oath? Echo answers Thad.

Pool sought to be re-elected Senator. Had he been, North Carolina would have been just the greatest State in the Union. There is no doubt of that. Pool, too, was in the Convention, and took an oath to support the Constitution of the "State?" Perhaps, however, he only did it to "embarrass" things, generally.

Messrs. Harris, of Rutherford, and Jenkins, of Gaston, not two months since, took an oath, as members of the Legislature, to support the Constitution of the State. They hold office under the State government and draw pay from the State Treasury. We have not learned that their scruples have taken the turn of inducing them to discredit the legitimacy and existence of Mr. Battle's right to "shell out" on a proper warrant. Certain it is, however, that while they were under oath to support the State Constitution, they were also in Washington seeking to upturn it.

We do not know whether Font has taken this oath, or not. We shan't take the trouble to enquire. De minimis non curat lex.

Patriots are easily manufactured. Sir Robert Walpole once said: "You have but to refuse an unreasonable demand and upstarts a patriot." This is what has made "patriots" (self-styled and so-called) of Holden and Pool.—The one wanted to be Governor and the other Senator. Nothing could have been more preposterous and unreasonable. Their ridiculous pretensions were spurned, as they deserved to be, and up jumped a brace of patriots,—Heaven save the mark!

The Standard, noticing the fact that there was one vote for the Howard Amendment in the Legislature of South Carolina, says that there is one brave and honest man in that body!—Holden is like the fellow in the Lunatic Asylum who swore that all the world was crazy, and that he was the only sane man in it!

The Fayetteville News tenders the thanks of the people of Cumberland county to Col. R. H. Cowan, of New Hanover, for his able efforts in behalf of the Western Railroad bill. The News says, "Its passage in the House is, in a large degree, attributable to the able speeches and untiring and persistent support of Cols. McKay and Cowan—two warm friends of the system of Internal Improvements."

THE TEST OATH TO BE PRONOUNCED UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

The Supreme Court, in the case of C. H. Garland, ex parte, will certainly decide on Monday next that the test oath, so far as it applies to attorneys practicing in United States courts, is unconstitutional. This virtually covers the whole ground against the test oath in any case. Justice Grier will deliver an opinion.—World.

TERRITORIAL GOVERNMENT FOR NEW YORK.

A Radical member is perfecting a bill to guarantee to the State of New York a republican form of government. It is based on the ground that discrimination made in the elective franchise by the law of New York in requiring a property qualification from colored men is not republican, and must be done away with.—Ib.

ABOLITION OF SOUTHERN STATE GOVERNMENTS.

At the same time, bills will be introduced abolishing the Senate governments of Maryland and Delaware.—ib.

REMARKS OF
COL. HALL, OF NEW HANOVER,

On the Resolutions declaring the Loyalty of North Carolina.

Mr. Speaker: When the resolutions were under discussion in the House of Commons, a printed copy was placed upon the desk of Senators. On reading them, I felt satisfied they did not come up to the requirements demanded by the events of the day. Their objects and sentiments met my cordial approval, but in this day of trial for our beloved State, when the clouds of destruction are lowering over her; when her supreme hour of trial had arrived; when she was denied the privilege of raising her voice in her own defence before that tribunal which was sitting in judgment upon her, and appeared about to pass an unlawful sentence against her, I conceived that it was incumbent on this General Assembly, which I am proud to think represents the true sentiments of North Carolina, to publish to the world at large a solemn and deliberate protest against the foul misrepresentation and charges that have been made against the good faith and loyalty of the State, and to set forth, in a correct light, the honesty and candor with which her people accepted the results of the war and renewed their allegiance to the Federal Government. I felt that we were the only medium through which our suffering and misrepresented people could make themselves heard in the councils of that nation of which we are claimed to be part and parcel, but with which we are denied all association and connection, except through the tax-collectors. Therefore I desired that they should be enunciated in a calm, dignified and truthful manner.

The people of North Carolina, during the war and since its termination, have done nothing inconsistent with their former prestige and honorable renown. Consistent in their hostility to the Federal Government and their renewed allegiance thereto, the fullest vindication of their honesty of purpose and integrity of action rests in a truthful statement and clear understanding of their present feelings and desires towards the General Government. North Carolina has done all she can honorably do to comply with her obligations, and God only knows at what immense expense. She cannot and will not sacrifice her manhood by complying with demands inconsistent alike to her rights and to her integrity. It accepted and restored, it must be as an honorable equal or not at all. Those who have fought and suffered together, must either prosper together or perish together. Poor old State! grander in her misfortunes than in her prosperity; glories, mournful though they be, cluster around her brow in undimmed brilliancy. Cursed be that degenreate son who would attempt to tarnish them.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to represent a county that had the reputation of being in advance of all the others in the State in its advocacy of the doctrine of secession, and, Sir, I am responsible in as great a degree as any of her citizens for the decided stand she took in that momentous issue. I thought that I understood what that issue comprehended. I made no attempt to conceal the coming conflict, but urged others and prepared myself to meet it. I anticipated that "grimed-visaged war" would present its horrid front. Civil strife, with all its attendant miseries, forced themselves upon my vision. The lurid glare of the battle-field; the groans of the wounded and dying; the pallid faces of the dead; the onward march of victory; the terrible retreat of defeat; the clouds overhanging burning cities, towns and villages; the blackened ruins of beloved homesteads; the tears and prayers of widows and orphans, all, all rose to view; but the path of duty and honor was plain. For years I had seen that the great sectional difficulty—a difficulty for which the present generation was in no way responsible—could be settled by appeal to arms only. It came, alas, too late. If, forty-six years before, we had fought instead of compromising, the result, logically, must have been reversed. Our social and political institutions had become, to us, an actual necessity. They had so entwined themselves around our domestic and public existence, that to abolish or destroy them produced dissolution immediately.

Could any one, who viewed passing events and political forebodings, calmly and considerately, fail to interpret the signs of the times? Could any one close his eyes to the fact, or fail to comprehend the lesson which it taught, that a sectional party, whose avowed purpose was to destroy the institutions of the South, and the chief and only element of strength was hostility to this section, in the space of six years from an insignificant minority grew to be a controlling majority? A majority, too, that would at once attempt to sap the very foundation upon which our social and political fabric rested.

The issue was therefore upon us whether we willed it or not. Whether we would lie supinely upon our backs until all we held sacred and dear was wrenched from us, or rise manfully as became sons descended from noble ancestors and attempt to protect our rights and honor, and if needs be, die in the effort, was the question presented for our acceptance. For one, I chose the latter. For this course I have no regrets to offer; in full view of the terrible calamities of the past or of the more terrible threats and uncertainties of the future.

With these feelings, therefore, and prompted by what I conceived was a sacred duty to my State, when the issue was finally made up, and the tocsin of war resounded throughout the land, I prepared myself for the conflict. In common with many thousands of my countrymen, I devoted whatever of energy, ability and strength I possessed to the cause of Southern independence. I participated in those great conflicts of arms that will make the soil of the Old Dominion historic as long as the English language is spoken. I did all in my power to secure the success of the South. But the decision was against us, and, Mr. Speaker, the defeat of our armies and the surrender of our cause. I regarded as a final decision of the great issues which had so long divided the sections. We had staked these issues upon the "wager of battle," and had lost. We had done all that duty and honor demanded—how well the future historian must tell.

But, sir, with the honesty of purpose and action with which I began the fight, I accepted its results. The issues of the war—slavery, secession, and by consequence, a material part of State sovereignty, I regarded as the natural trophies of the conqueror. I was for yielding honestly and with good grace. I therefore cordially endorsed the action of our Convention and Legislature in placing the seal of oblivion upon those issues. My whole efforts, since the surrender, have been to influence our people to act in good faith to their obligations and attempt to unite the shattered fragments of government and restore peace and harmony.

This has been done with zeal, and a singleness of purpose most commendable in them, and which ought to have won the confidence of the Northern people and met a cordial and favorable response. Our people have done all they could consistent with manhood. Terms are now demanded of us with which we cannot comply. We cannot stultify ourselves. We cannot and will not say that those noble spirits who sprang to arms at the call of their native State and yielded up their noble lives in her defence, now fill dishonored and ignoble graves. We cannot consent that those living powers, who so gallantly fought for the honor and safety of North Carolina, shall be forever dishonored and disfranchised. No! Mr. Speaker, a magnanimous antagonist would never ask us to degrade ourselves thus. We are prepared to make loyal citizens of the National Government, which is all that ought or should now be demanded of us. The action of the entire South proves incontestibly that they are prepared to do this, but not to accept dishonor.

Mr. Speaker, the resolutions recite that there are evil-minded persons among us, who, for reasons known best to themselves, are engaged in misrepresenting us. I regret to say that such is the case. The resolutions also deny the charge that Union men in our midst are persecuted for opinion's sake. This is a very common charge, and one that has done us more harm in the estimation of the North than any other, because bad and designing men of this section have imposed upon the ignorance at the North of our real feelings and desires. We had among us many men who were honest and consistent in their devotion to the Union during the entire war. It is true that we were so impressed with the belief that they were in error that we could not do them entire justice, but I appeal to those very men, now that the smoke of battle has cleared off, and the excitement of the times has passed away, and reason and sober thought resumed their sway, if the people of North Carolina have not yielded to them their accustomed confidence. In my own county there were a few of this class, whose children perished on the field of battle in defence of the State, whose property was almost entirely swept away, but who never swerved in their devotion to the cause of the Union. Have they lost the confidence of the people of that secession county? Far from it. And my word for it, that when you find a consistent and genuine Union man, you will find a man who deeply sympathizes with the sufferings of his fellow-citizens and fully determined to link his destiny with that of the State for weal or woe.

But there is a class of men in North Carolina, Mr. Speaker, that I refer to with loathing—men who were instrumental in "firing the Southern heart," and did all they could to prepare the minds of the Southern people for the coming conflict, and during the earlier years of the war, when victory perched upon the Confederate banner, and Southern independence seemed almost an accomplished fact, were the most devoted friends of the Southern cause; but when the scene changed, and the tide of battle turned, and the shattered and exhausted ranks of the Confederacy retired before the well-appointed armies of the United States, and the time arrived which tried men's souls, and the final great conflict was upon us, and disaster and defeat seemed about to compel surrender, they, like cravens, as they are, lent their aid to the enemies of the people to hasten the sad catastrophe. These traitors to their own treason now claim peculiar and special consideration at the hands of the National Government, as consistent and honest Union men, and are at this very time, when Congress needs no encouragement to exercise their power to degrade, humiliate and ruin us, stealing off from our midst; aye from our very Legislative Halls, like the assassin at night, to conspire with the acknowledged enemies of their fellow-citizens, to plunge the knife deeper and deeper into the vitals of their own people. Mr. Speaker, the English language affords no words sufficiently comprehensive to express the deep loathing and contempt I have for such men.

It is proper to add that Mr. Weeks had as fair a prospect for long life as any man apparently. The cash premium paid by Mr. W. was $85. Was it wise and prudent to thus provide for wife and children? If so—then why not follow the example at once.

VALUABLE RESIDENCE FOR SALE In Warren County.

BY virtue of a decree of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Warren County at November Term 1866, I shall offer for sale on the premises on Saturday 29th. December 1866, upon a credit of six months, to the highest bidder. The tract of land on which Jackson Pinnell resided at the time of his death, lying and being in the County of Warren, five miles from Warrenton, on the Louisburg road, containing by a recent survey two hundred and forty-three acres, adjoining the lands of John Watson, John Jones and others. The improvements are a two story dwelling with seven rooms and a passage, good out houses, with rock chimneys, good meat house, stables, granery and two large tobacco barns shaded, a first rate apple orchard containing about two thousand young and bearing trees of the most choice kinds, a well of water, also a tanyard with a dwelling attached.

This is one of the most desirable places in the county for a residence, being handsomely improved, in a healthy part of the country and good neighborhood. There is a sufficent quantity of wooded land on the tracts to keep up the plantation and of good quality.

The 145th. Term of the University will begin on the 19th. prox. See announcement in another column.

See Card of Anthony & Nuttall, Commission Merchants, Concord, N. C. The Editors of this paper take pleasure in commending this firm to public confidence.

See the notice of Matthew Shaw, C. & M. E. of Beaufort, with reference to the Bank of Washington,—that institution being about to avail itself of the act of Assembly "to enable the Banks of the State to close their business."

Mrs. Jas. F. Taylor's excellent School will be resumed on the 1st. prox.

Mrs. Hughes has rented the Montague House and will accommodate boarders in the best style.

Tin Lard Stands: J. Brown, (with Hart & Lewis.)

THE YARBORO HOUSE.—This House, under the management of Mr. W. G. Riddick, is not only regaining its former popularity, but is outstripping that reputation. Its guests, we find, are delighted with the accommodations. The first opportunity we have had of testing them, by personal observation, was on Christmas day, when we accepted an oft-repeated invitation to partake of Mr. R.'s hospitalities. The "Christmas dinner" would have done credit to any House in the country. It cannot be questioned that Raleigh can boast of two Hotels not inferior to any in the cities. Success to the Yarboro and the Exchange!

OUR ENTIRE community deeply sympathize with our worthy Governor in the severe domestic affliction with which he has been visited in the death of his youngest daughter,—a lovely and estimable young lady, who was dear to a large circle of friends and relatives.

THE CHRISTMAS HOLYDAYS have passed off pleasantly and without disturbance or excess.—Our people seem to have gladly seized the occasion, amid the enjoyments of the domestic and social circle, to divert their minds from the troubles in which they are involved, and by which they are menaced by bad and malevolent man. The attractions of the season seem to have been more than ordinarily prominent.—Good cheer, innocent hilarity, and agreeable interchanges, have prevailed. We trust that, amid the common good feeling that has existed, the calls of charity have not been disregarded,—charity to the suffering, the sick, the poor, the erring; charity to all except such as deserve no charity,—those who are seeking the ruin of their neighbors and their country.

WE ARE indebted to Messrs. Oliver Ditson & Co. for the following pieces of new Music, viz: Adele Waltz, Marsicilles Hymn, transcribed for the Piano, Kitty Carew (song,) &c., &c.

THERE HAS been a noticeable absence of one heretofore marked feature of the Christmas festivities. We mean the appearance on our streets of the throngs of happy negroes, with smiling faces and clad in gay holyday attire, that were wont to be seen before the days of Freedmen's Bureaus and similar modern institutions. Sambo has greatly missed the largess of his erewhile "oppressor." The good old days of "Johnny Cooner," performing strange antics to the merry symphony of the banjo and the triangle, have passed away. Much of the former attractiveness of a Southern Christmas grew out of the institution of slavery, and the mutual dependence between slave and master. The one was the happy recipient of generous favors and indulgences, and the other felt a sincere gratification in ministering to the enjoyments of his black household.

WE LEARN that a negro man was knocked down and robbed, in the Northeastern portion of the city, a few nights ago, and so badly injured as to have since died. We have not learned particulars, or whether any arrests have been made.

THE IRON FRONT to the splendid TUCKER HALL goes up rapidly. When completed, it will be a great ornament to Raleigh, and mark a new era in our City architecture. The building will be worthy of a formal dedication.—The Messrs. Tucker, however, with their well-known public spirit, will be up to inaugurating their enterprize in a becoming manner.

THE New York papers announce the death of Mr. William Browne, the oldest artist in that city, and a painter of much celebrity. He was the father of Mr. William Garl Browne, of this city, whose skill and success as an artist are so well known. Mr. B. is one of the most accomplished painters in the country, and his likenesses are generally faultless.

We are pleased to learn that he is engaged, at present, upon a portrait of President Johnson. He will do full justice to his illustrious subject.

——THE WELDON STATE.—The Weldon State newspaper, which was temporarily suspended in consequence of the death of its late talented editor, Thos. J. Garner, has been purchased, and is issued by W. A. Kerr, Esq. We welcome Mr. Kerr to the fraternity and wish him abundant success.

STATE NEWS.

——Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, D. D., Bishop of this Diocese, has returned from his visit to Europe, we are pleased to learn, in greatly improved health. He preached in Petersburg on Sunday last, and his sermon on the occasion, says the Express, was characterized by great earnestness, eloquence and force.

——THE WILSON TOURNAMENT.—Thirteen knights entered the list to compete for the usual honors; among them was Messrs. M. C. Nixon and H. P. Dortch, of this place. Mr. Hadley crowned Miss Mollie Dortch, Queen; Mr. Pate crowned Miss Bynum first Maid of Honor; Mr Tyson crowned Miss M. Hancock, second Maid of Honor, and Mr. Shelby crowned Miss Blount, third Maid of Honor. Mr. M. C. Nixon won the Championship; he has a certificate to that effect. Mr. H. Dortch tied Mr. Selby three times for the third maid of honor, and was complimented very highly for his excellent riding. Messrs. Nixon and Dortch are two of our best riders.—Goldsboro' News.

——The examination of some 25 persons, arrested on Roanoke Island and in the adjacent counties on the charge of robbing the wrecked steamer Sheridan, took place last week before a court convened for that purpose. Among the persons arrested were Adam Ethridge, wrecking commissioner, and a magistrate named Meekin, both of whom were bailed in the sum of $5,000 each. Immense quantities of stolen goods were found secreted in the houses of the wreckers of Currituck county, and distributed through the counties of Tyrrell, Hyde and Pasquotank, N. C. Over $2,000 worth were discovered in the house of John Wescott, and he is among the parties arrested. Bail for him was refused. All the accused were sent on for trial before the United States District Court, which convenes in Elizabeth City, on the 15th of January.

——Col. Tate, the energetic President of the W. N. C. Railroad, has effected an arrangement with the N. C. Road, to reduce the freight on corn from 23 to 12 cents per bushel from Salisbury to Charlotte.

The Statesville American says of Col. Tate, that "He is doing all in his power, as President of the Western North Carolina Road, to promote the interest of all classes by reducing the rates of freight and rendering the operations of the Road under his care efficient and accommodating. Let his exertions receive a proper response from the public and business community of this and other points; as he is deserving, that he might have it in his power to bestow additional public benefits—which will be in proportion to the patronage his road receives."

——Mr. Mac Linsey, formerly a member of the North Carolina Legislature, and Mr. Joseph Baxter, both of Currituck county, were arrested near the Court House in that county, on Christmas day, by the Federal authorities, for being engaged in the capture and robbing of a vessel during the late war, when they were not employed in the Confederate army. A man named Moore was arrested some time since on the same charge, and is now confined in jail in Elizabeth City, where those prisoners are also to be sent.

——We are pained to learn that a fire broke out in Morganton a few days since, which destroyed the old Smyth Hotel and nearly the entire block on which it stands, including the store of Caldwell, Walton & Feree.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 26, P. M.

It is stated that the majority opinion of the Supreme Court on the test oath, as applied to lawyers, is based upon the principle that the profession of law is a trade, and, therefore, an inalienable right, not to be given by the government or taken away by the act of rebellion.

It is estimated that three-fourths of the revenue from distillation has been lost through the incompetency of inspectors.

One hundred and thirty anti-Johnson men have been removed from the United States Bonded warehouses in the past fortnight.

Judge Ingraham, in the case of applications to discharge a minor who enlisted in the army, said he would follow precedent decisions, and that the Judges of the State Courts had no authority to grant relief in such cases, but that the United States Court had. The resolution of Mr. Julian, that no claims due prior to April 1, 1861, should be paid, unless to active and out-spoken Union men, is already regarded by some Treasury officers. A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctor and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following;

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITHE,
U. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL,—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1866. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 1, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue).

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my baby for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of pains in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals,

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude
J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

RANDOLPH MACON COLLEGE,

VIRGINIA.

IN FULL OPERATION.

THIS TIME-HONORED INSTITUTION IS ONCE more in successful operation, with a FULL CORPS OF PROFESSORS. The chairs of the several schools are filled by able and experienced men. There are five literary and scientific schools, viz: of ANCIENT LANGUAGES, MATHEMATICS, CHEMISTRY and NATURAL PHILOSOPHY, MORAL PHILOSOPHY and MODERN LANGUAGES. In addition to the above the Board of Trustees have established a school of Commercial Science, with the view of giving to the young men of the country a Business Education.

To graduates in all these schools, Diplomas are granted, and the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts are conferred upon students who accomplish a certain course. The high grade of scholarship formerly required is still maintained. We have a full Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus for the illustration of the subjects taught.

The location of the College is unsurpassed for health and geniality. It is situated midway between the mountains and the seaboard; and during a career of thirty-three years, and with thousands of young men in attendance, there has never been a death arising from malaria or other local causes. We profess to educate young men not only mentally and morally but physically also.

BOARD IS SIXTEEN DOLLARS PER MONTH.

Tuition from $40 to $90, according to the number of schools attended. $250 will cover expenses of board, tickets for three schools, matriculation and contingent fees for ten months.

Rooms in the College free of charge, but the student provides his own furniture, fuel and lights. Young men who are preparing for the ministry and those disabled by the late war who are unable to pay their tuition, will be allowed to attend any or all of the schools free of charge.

This College is situated near Boydton, the county seat of Mecklenburg county, Va.

Arrangements are made to transport students from Ridgway Depot, on the Raleigh and Weldon Railroad, whilst a conveyance leaves Roanoke station, on the Richmond and Danville Railroad, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and the Wolf Trap Depot, on the same road, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

We solicit a liberal patronage from Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina, from the West, South and Southwest.

Students will be received at any time. The second term will commence on the 6th day of February next. Young men will be received and prepared for the College proper.

For further particulars address the undersigned at Boydton, Mecklenburg county, Va.
